In the morning, when my darling,

In the evening, when my darling,

By the mother's knee have murmured,

"Jesus, keep us through the night."

To the heart's core, white and warm,

Whispered the words of love and faith,

And in my arms I take thee,

Through the long, long night.

Swift, in rayless silence, round me,

Come the dearest of my life,

"Dark" my blue eyes, blue and bright,

Half in awe and half in fight.

"Dark" the baby brother, young,

With a hush upon his face,

Then my darling, my darling,

Whispered the words of love and faith,

And in my arms I take thee,

Through the long, long night.

THE CHINESE ARE COMING.

The movement in favor of bringing large numbers of Chinese into the United States, says the Louisville Courier-Journal, is fast increasing in momentum. The Chinese, we have no doubt, would come in vast multitudes at no distant day, even without any active agency on the part of our people in their introduction, just as they have been and are now coming in large numbers into California, but measures are extensively on foot to hasten the great advent. General Forrest has made arrangements to secure, within the next two months, a thousand Chinese as laborers upon a Southern railroad which he has contracted to make. An agency has been established in St. Louis for supplying at the shortest notice, whatever number of Chinese may be called for from any part of the country, and that agency has already ordered 60,000. A grand enterprise for the introduction of Chinese to be employed upon the plantations of the South has been vigorously inaugurated at Memphis. We published yesterday a dispatch in regard to the proceedings of a meeting at Memphis last Wednesday for the encouragement of Chinese immigration. The meeting, composed of leading men, was preliminary to a convention to meet at that place on the 18th of this month and to consist of whatever delegates may be sent from any of the Southern States. The following dispatch was read to the meeting by the Secretary:

San Francisco, June 30.

G. W. GALT.—Does the meeting at Memphis take place on the 18th of July? Knapshamm, principal Chinese importer, will attend if the answer is favorable.

J. G. EASTLAND.

The meeting authorized a favorable answer, was immediately made by telegraph. The resolutions, which were adopted by the meeting and which we published yesterday, evinced earnestness and energy of purpose. The Convention of the 18th will be numerously attended, and it will be an important link in an important chain of events in the history of the South and of the United States. We have not a doubt, that, after a very short time, the Pacific railroad will be taxed to its utmost capacity, and continue for an indefinite period to be so taxed, in the transportation of Chinese. The Southern people realize that, if they would secure Chinese labor for their past crops, they must lose no time, for, by the middle of November, the great railroad may be obstructed by snow.

A new era opens. The projectors of the Pacific railroad did not dream of half its consequences. Unquestionably the Chinese, having found their way in large numbers into California and thrived there as they had never thrived in their own country, would shortly and after the lapse of years penetrate to our Southern States and also to the Northern even in the absence of a railroad, but this great work facilitates the inevitable. The labor problem is partially though by no means entirely solved. Our Southern people can have as much labor as they want, and have it at less than one-half what they paid for slave labor before the war, and are paying for free labor now, and the people of the North can have it on equally good terms. The people of the South, suffering as they are from the want of labor that can be relied on and from the insolence of the blacks who seek to exercise control over the land and in a great measure to exercise it, will be quick to avail themselves of the great change in the condition of things, but they of the North cannot but feel grave and anxious apprehensions at the contemplation of the effects of Chinese labor in their section where present prices are barely enough to keep a large portion of the existing white population from starvation. Both in the South and in the North the aggregate wisdom of the wisest is required to manage right in the coming emergency, and the aggregate may be influenced for the public good.

STATE NEWS.

To-day (Monday), with all the members of the Bench, the case of the University R. R. Co. vs. W. W. Holden, Gov., and D. A. Jenkins, Treasurer, which was postponed from Friday last, was argued, Messrs. Haywood, Fowle and Person for Plaintiff and the Attorney General and Pou for Defendants. The case occupied the morning session and is still being argued as we go to press. The arguments will, perhaps, close to-day, but in opinion will not be filed for several days, as the case is an important one, and the Court will take full time to consider it.

One of the most singular freaks of nature we ever saw has been exhibited at the Post Office, at this place, during the past week. It is a pig with a human face! Its shape and structure are natural up to the ears, but from the ears to the top of the head and down to the chin the shape and features are those of the human, excepting that it is covered with hair like the rest of the body and has no nostrils, being obliged to breathe through the mouth. The pig is about two weeks old. —North-Carolinian.

The North Carolinian wants a Yankee to keep a hotel in Elizabeth City. We have several here, but they are nearer dead than alive, and could not say whether or not they can keep a hotel, though they are "monstrous" good at keeping everything they get their hands on. —Star.

Ex-Governor Vance left us for Charlotte a few days since. He is as hearty as a buck, and serious as an undertaker. He thinks there is a good time coming for us all, if we only stay virtuous and not go philandering after the allurements of the devil. —Asheville News.

THE EMPRESS EUGENIE TO VISIT THE UNITED STATES.—Applet's Journal, for July 1st, announces a doubtful story that Eugenie, Empress of the French, will visit America next summer. It says that the fact has not before been made public, though how it obtained the information is not stated. We quote:

It is pretty generally known that Prince Arthur, second son of the Queen of England, will visit Canada and the United States during the present season, but the fact that we are about to announce has not yet been public—that a more illustrious person will land on our shores next summer in the person of Eugenie Montijo, grand-daughter of old Mr. Kilpatrick, at one time American consul at Malaga, and a friend of Washington Irving, who in one of his letters says: "Louis Napoleon and Eugenie Montijo, Emperor and Empress of France—one of whom I entertained at my cottage on the Hudson; the other, when a child, I had on my knee at Grenada. It seems to cap the climax of the strange dramas of which Paris has been the theatre during my lifetime. The last I saw of Eugenie Montijo she was one of the reigning belles of Madrid." Eugenie will not visit this country as Empress of France, but will travel incognito under an assumed title, which, however, will not prevent her receiving a most cordial and enthusiastic reception wherever she may show her still beautiful face. She will be the first of the crowned heads of Europe who has landed on American soil.

"ANOTHER OCEAN MYSTERY."—The steamship United Kingdom, as most of our readers are aware, sailed from the port of New York for Glasgow, on the 19th of April last. She had a fair cargo on board, and a goodly number of passengers. On the 20th, the day after she sailed, she was spoken some one hundred and fifty miles from Sandy Hook. It is supposed by some that she was seen on May 4th, about five hundred miles from New York. This is all we know of the United Kingdom since she last left her harbor in these waters. It is now a long time since April 19. April is gone; May and June have followed, and now we have entered upon July; but the fate of the United Kingdom is still unknown. That she has perished with all on board it is now reasonable to conclude, but from what cause, or in what circumstances, we are left to conjecture.

On the 26th of April, six days after the United Kingdom sailed, the City of Paris arrived in this port, and reported icebergs and heavy gales in the neighborhood of Cape Race. It is possible that the United Kingdom perished amid these gales, and from collision with an iceberg. It is hard to give up hope, but we are not left any foundation on which longer to lean. Like the Hibernia, of painful memory, the United Kingdom has no doubt gone down; but, unlike the Hibernia, has, in all probability, carried with her her entire living freight. It is in fact another terrible sea tragedy, all the more terrible, inasmuch that no one has survived to tell the tale. —Scottish American Journal.

The women immigrants from Northern Europe, who have settled in the West, continue their old habits of working in the fields, and they can do as much work as the men.

TO YOUNG MEN.

It is easier to be a good business man than a poor one. Half the energy displayed in keeping ahead that is required to catch up when behind will save credit, give more time to business and add to the profit and reputation of your work. Honor your engagements. If you propose to meet a man, or do a certain thing at a certain moment, be ready at the appointed time. If you have work to do, do it at once cheerfully and therefore more speedily and correctly. If you go out on business, read promptly to the matter on hand, and then as promptly go about your own business. Do not stop to tell stories in business hours.

If you have a place of business, be found there when wanted. No man can get rich by sitting around stores and saloons. Never "pool" on business matters. If you have to labor for a living, remember that one hour in the morning is better than two at night. If you employ others, be on hand to see that they attend to their duties, and to direct with regularity, promptness and liberality. Do not meddle with any business you know nothing of. Never say an article simply because the man that sells it will take it out for you. Trade is money. Time is money. A good business habit and reputation is always money. Make your place of business pleasant and attractive; then stay there to wait on customers.

Never use quick words, or allow yourself to make hastily or ungovernably remarks, to those you employ, to do so lessens their respect for you and your influence over them. Help yourself, and others will help you. Be faithful over the interests confined to your keeping, and all good time, your responsibilities will be increased. Do not be in too great haste to get rich. Do not busy yourself until you have arranged and laid a good foundation. Do not—as you have to work for success—spend time in idleness. If your time is your own, business will suffer if you do. If it is given to another for pay, it belongs to him, and you have no more right to steal it than to steal money. Be obliging. Strive to avoid harsh words and personalities. Do not kick every stone in the path; more miles can be made in a day by going steadily on than by stopping to kick. Pay as you go. A man of honor respects his word as he does his bond. Ask, but never beg. Help others when you can, but never give when you cannot afford to simply because it is fashionable. Learn to say no. No necessity of snapping it out dog-fashion, but say it firmly and respectfully. Have but few confidants, and the fewer the better. Use your own brains more than those of others. Learn to think and act for yourself. Be vigilant. Keep ahead rather than behind the times.

Young men cut this out, and if there is folly in the argument let us know.

A NOBLE DEED.—We find the following incident related in a late number of the Memphis Avalanche, and copy it to show that the late war has not entirely obliterated all the better and nobler qualities of human nature:

An incident occurred here on Tuesday that ought to be recorded. Mr. Charles Walters, a Confederate soldier, who had lost an arm in the war, arrived at the Charleston railroad depot, on his way to Texas. He there got into Hack No. 27, in which he was driven down to the steamer Magnolia. Just when the boat was about putting out Hack No. 27 was seen driving furiously back, and the driver rushed from his seat, hastened to his late passenger, Mr. Walters, and placed in his hand his pocket-book, containing $450 and a check of $1000 on the First National Bank in New Orleans, which that gentleman had left behind him in the hack. Mr. Walters was profuse in his thanks, and with hearty gratitude, asked the man to accept $10 of the returned money. "Not a cent," said the noble fellow; "you fought with the gray; I fought with the blue; you lost an arm; I have both mine; keep your money, and may God bless you with it." This generous, manly fellow, whose sentiments do honor to his nature, was James McConnell, who has a wife and family, and Hack No. 27 for his whole fortune.

FRANK BLAIR EULOGIZES SPENCER WALL JACKSON.—Long Branch, N. Y., July 8.—At the dinner to-night General F. P. Blair was called on to speak. Having spoken in behalf of Stonewall Jackson and the southerners during the war, he was loudly hissed, and a serious disturbance occurred between Mr. Blair and the members, the latter insisting upon his being called to order. Admiral Farragut called General Blair to order, said the hisses and groans of the members of the Army of the Gulf. Bad feeling prevails against General Blair at present.

A reward of $10,000 is offered for the capture, dead or alive, of Sam Hildebrand, the Missouri desperado. An armed posse has been organized under a proclamation of the Governor of that State, to search for and arrest him. He has killed over eighty men, and boasts that he will not yield until he has made it an even hundred.

LATEST NEWS.

Washington, July 13.—Col. Robb, Collector of Customs at Savannah, is here. The Secretary of the Treasury has placed at his disposal the revenue cutter "McCalloch," until the "Nansemund," now at Baltimore repairing, is serviceable.

Distillers licensed to make spirits from grain may distill without increasing their tax, attaching to an establishment exclusively devoted to fruit distillation.

No fractional currency has been issued this week.

All spirits forfeited from having been left in bonded warehouses after the first of July, has been ordered to be sold. The Collector gets five per cent, commission.

Cuban officers have the following: Letters received from prominent Cuban officers via Nassau and Key West, bringing dates to the first instant. Intelligence of the arrest of the Cuban Junta and others in New York, produced a most profound impression of surprise and regret. No other news could have caused such a feeling of despondency. One of the writers says "it came like the news of the death of your nearest and best friend—your only friend. The feeling of all seemed to be that we were alone and must expect no assistance. However, all seeing that it is now liberty or death, for no mercy can be expected from the Spaniards, they will fight as only men driven to such desperation can fight." Lopez, who succeeded Lecua at Nuevitas and Puerto Principe, is reported to have lost 200 troops by desertion to Quesada.

Deserters report that the disaffection among the Spanish troops is increasing, caused by frequent changes of commanders of posts and quarrels of regimental officers. Frequent collisions occur, between camps with out serious loss on either side. The Cubans claim an advantage of position and earnestness on the part of their troops. The Spanish commanders continue to execute all prisoners immediately upon their capture. Even those who are wounded are executed on the field. Quesada has hitherto respected the rights of prisoners. This policy is giving dissatisfaction in his camp. His followers demand retaliation.

Public printer Clapp, replying to the Committee of Book Binders regarding the employment of apprentices, denies the right of any private organization to dictate to the Government. The Journeymen Carpenter's Association in this city have inserted the word "white" in their Constitution, thus excluding blacks from membership.

The Conservatives of Mississippi and Texas are not hopeless of securing an earlier election day than that ordered at the Cabinet meeting yesterday, and one which will not interfere so much with cotton picking. It appears that Mr. Boutwell, in Cabinet council, thought the proposed day would be the ideal of the season.

WASHINGTON, July 12, M.—News from Vera Cruz of the 6th, states that the elections throughout the country resulted favorably to the Government.

Gov. Peate, of Texas, is here in the interest of the Conservative Republicans.

Governor Geary of Pennsylvania, President of the Grand Council of the Union League, promises material aid to the Texas Republicans. Several speakers will canvass the State after the sickly season is over, in the interest of the Davis ticket.

Governor Walker, of Virginia, had a long and satisfactory interview with the President this morning.

LATER.—The President has abandoned his trip to Baltimore.

Virginia.

RICHMOND, July 12, M.—Official election returns, so far, show that the blacks voted closer to the registered strength than the whites did. The less intelligent blacks, who had been under the belief during the canvass, that if the Walker ticket succeeded their rights would be taken from them, and who were assured by Wells, in a speech, the day before the election, that a victory for Walker would be no victory, as the election would have to be held over again, are not generally disposed to accept the situation. Yesterday afternoon, a Walker negro was set upon by a colored mob on one of the public promenade, and had to be rescued by the whites.

A large, red-headed wood pecker flew into one of the rooms of the Lewisburg Academy, a few days ago, and alighting on the head of a school boy, plucked a lock of hair from his head and departed with the trophy in his beak.

One thousand years before the birth of Christopher Columbus, the Chinese Year Books say that a company of Buddhist priests entered America by way of Alaska, and examined the whole western coast of North America.

Near Knoxville, Tenn., have been found the fossil remains of the head of a sea-turtle, so large that it is estimated that the reptile when alive, must have weighed several tons.

About four hundred American families are sojourning at Dresden.

USURIOUS RATES FOR MONEY.—The

New York correspondent of the Philadelphia Ledger writes: "It turns out to be true that the directors of several of the most prominent national banks, together with a sundry stock brokers, have received a summons from the District Attorney to appear before the grand jury to testify concerning certain complaints that have been made against the lenders of money at usurious rates. The fact is making a great flutter in Wall Street."

A couple of girls in Cincinnati, who had a spite against a young man, entered his room during his absence and soaked his bed with sulphuric acid.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

Summer Fertilizer—How to Escape Them. It will not do to trifle with the health in hot weather. Vigor passes through the skin at every pore, and thus by physical vigor only that unhealthy influence can be baffled and repelled. The vital elements are evaporated in perspiration. Intense heat converts a man into a self-acting pump, and the moisture that is pumped out of him is derived from the well springs of life within him. There is great need, therefore, that these sources of physical strength should be in a condition to bear, without danger or inconvenience, the extraordinary drain. If they are not in such a condition, the individual becomes languid and low-spirited. The main thing is to keep the digestive apparatus in good working trim; for if the stomach, the paragon of the system, does its duty thoroughly, the liver, the bowels, the brain, and the nervous system, being duly nurtured, will be likely to do theirs. In view of these facts, it is manifest that a powerful and wholesome vegetable tonic like HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS is especially required at this enfeebling season. It is the most admirable of all correctives and invigorants, and for this reason: it does not over-stimulate the system. The proportions of aperient, tonic and stimulating components are so judiciously graduated, that the processes of invigoration and purification go on simultaneously, and no undue excitement is created in the circulation of the blood. All unmediated stimulants, however pure, excite the pulse and the nervous system. Their exhilarating effect is temporary, and when it passes off the physical and mental depression they were employed to remove returns in an aggravated form. But this is not the case when HOSTETTER'S BITTERS are taken as a stomachic and nervine. The medicinal herbs, roots and gums with which they are impregnated, neutralize the exciting principle of the yeast spirit which forms their basis, and which is in itself the most wholesome of all the varieties of alcohol.
